EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

4. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Frank Delucia, applicant's attorney on 3/10/06.

The application has been amended as follows:

The Abstract has been replaced by the following abstract:

-- A log acquisition method is provided that allows a processing log of software to readily be acquired and reduces the man-hours needed for analyzing a bug. The log acquisition method is a method for acquiring a runtime log of a program including a function, comprising the step of changing the address of the function loaded to the address of a function for log acquisition and selecting the function, wherein the function for log acquisition comprises the steps of: calling the function the log of which is to be acquired to cause a predetermined process to be executed, receiving the result of the execution, and passing said result to said

REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reason for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fail to teach in combination with the other claimed limitations, a method for acquiring a runtime log of a program including a function, comprising the step of: changing the address of the function loaded to the address of a function for log acquisition and selecting the function, wherein the function for log acquisition comprises the steps of: calling the function the log of which is to be acquired to cause a predetermined process to be executed, receiving the result of the execution, and passing said result to said program, recording given information when calling the address of the selected function, and recording given information when receiving the result of the execution of the selected function, as recited in the independent claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
